

CELEBRATION 20 YEARS AGO

Well Described By One Present That 4th of July.

Independence Day Was Celebrated In Hartford By Blue and the Gray Veterans.

The old Fourth twenty years ago was on Tuesday and a great day it was.

The writer is a member of the W. O. W., but he wants to say that if you boys at Hartford can have as good a time the coming Fourth as was enjoyed on the Fourth of twenty years ago you can well afford to congratulate yourselves on having a good time and a day that can be looked back upon twenty years from now as being a great day.

The Fourth I mention was celebrated by the old soldiers of the Blue and the Gray. It was a beautiful morning and the crowd began to gather early and began going in hundreds through the streets of Hartford to the fair ground. People by the hundreds came in from every neighborhood and all the surrounding counties were well represented. Every conceivable conveyance was to be seen. The finest carriages, and the best horses; mules and the old oxen drawing the good old farm road wagons were there.

About 9:30 o'clock the old soldiers, who had gathered at the court house, marched to the fair ground to the tune of martial music, the old time fire and enthusiasm were kindled in the eyes of the veterans. The old flag received many salutes and cheers. With bands playing, banners flying and hearts beating with patriotic emotions, the grand old patriots marched gladly on. The business houses were all decorated.

Animated as were the faces—quick as were the feet, one could not fail to see the trace of madness. Thoughts were wandering to other days when they had marched to battle on the field where comrades fell. On and on swept the columns into the beautiful grounds where back of the amphitheater a speakers stand had been erected and beautifully decorated.

Captain E. F. Kinnaid, of Rochester, called the vast assembly to order and the Rev. J. A. Bennett, of Beda, led in prayer. In the forenoon speeches were made by Dr. J. E. Pendleton, Major Kinnaid, General E. H. Hobson and in the afternoon by Col. J. S. R. Wedding, Col. S. P. Love and Col. I. B. Nail. All speeches were appropriate and patriotic and full of kindly feeling for both the Blue and the Gray. A big public dinner was served and the great crowd was treated bountifully. Many citizens of the town and surrounding country brought dinner and invited many friends to enjoy their hospitality.

I will attempt to give the names of those who took part in the celebration, as best as I can remember: Capt. S. K. Cox, was chosen president; Roland Hackett and J. M. Bishop, vice presidents; the Rev. J. A. Bennett, (deceased) chaplain, and Col. I. B. Nail, secretary.

The following old soldiers were enrolled in the 17th Ky. Infantry and 12th Ky. Cavalry: R. V. Wells, Jno. P. Morton, Robert Duff, J. O. Butler, Capt. David Duncan, J. M. Myers, W. M. Morris, W. F. Wakeland, G. L. O'Bannon, W. F. Wright, Richard W. Givens, Sanford White, Jesse Shaver, George W. Reddish, R. W. Grimes, G. S. Simpson, Edwin Forbes, V. M. Stewart, J. I. Harden, F. M. Felix, J. C. Wilson, John S. Fuqua, John I. Felix, H. C. Truman, J. N. Pollard, John W. Black, S. M. Wilson, M. S. Ragland, R. P. Sorrells, John N. Blair, W. M. Southard, Robert Simpson, J. Wettanins, Luther Rogers, Miles McCoy, Lindsey Bennett, Remus Carter, E. H. James, James M. Rogers, J. C. Chamberlain, Daniel Hicks, R. P. James, J. F. King, W. C. Ambrose, Aaron Jewell, J. A. King, J. A. Hoskins, V. J. Rains, Albert Pitts, Carroll Bradley, J. W. Stevens, Sidney Bostath, J. I. Patton, Jesse W. Sharp, W. P. Napier, A. W. Hodges, J. W. Bear, W. P. Bennett, D. L. Smith, John I. Crume, O. B. Chapman, R. N. Eversly, Col. C. Q. Shanks, C. A. Russellberg, S. G.

Rhoads, A. W. Mills, E. Crowe, H. A. Babbit, Wm. Wallace, John A. Clark, James A. Thomas, A. T. Nail and Thomas Greer.

In looking over the names of those who answered to the roll call in the reunion at Hartford fair grounds on the Fourth of July twenty years ago, we find that about eight of every nine have gone to that great reunion above. There will be only one veteran in nine this year to help us celebrate the grand old Fourth.

There was another notable feature of that day that will be doubtless remembered by some of those present. It had been announced that there would be a bicycle race that day, but for lack of courage or something it failed to come off. But there was one bicycle on the grounds and Hayward furnished the fun for the crowd. Mr. Hayward had never ridden a wheel and in order to enliven the crowd decided to make his initial effort to ride one that day, despite the fact he would make for the crowd of fully 3,000 people right in front of the amphitheater. It was a lively ride and the wiggle-de-wiggle, in and out and around and about ran the wheel, describing rainbows and ended in a splash in the ditch, landing the young attorney ankle deep in the mud and water just below the amphitheater.

All in all it was a great day—the Fourth twenty years ago—and I would greatly enjoy going over it again.

Busy People.

God never goes to the lazy or the idle when he wants men for his service. When God wants a worker he calls a worker. When he has work to be done, he goes to those already at work. When God wants a good servant he calls a busy man. Scripture and history attests this truth. Moses was busy with his flocks at Horeb. Gideon was busy threshing wheat by the winepress. Saul was busy searching for his father's lost beasts. Elisha was busy plowing with twelve yoke of oxen. David was busy caring for his father's sheep. Nebemiah was busy bearing the king's wine cup. Amos was busy following the flock. Peter and Andrew were busy casting a net into the sea. James and John were busy mending their nets. Matthew was collecting customs. Are you busy?

DO NOT WANT RIGHT TO VOTE

Majority of Illinois Women Would Turn Down Proposition, Says Cannon

Tuscola, Ill., June 16.—Women don't want the right to vote, a privilege granted them in Illinois by the Legislature last Tuesday, Joseph G. Cannon, former Speaker of the National House, told a Douglas-county audience yesterday.

"I am not afraid of woman suffrage," asserted "Uncle Joe." "I am not violently opposed, if the women really want it, but if the proposition were put to the women of the State it would be lost by 50,000 votes. Now that we are going to have it in Illinois, it will be a good time for an awfully handsome man run for office."

The former Speaker said he was living on "borrowed time," and that the speech might be his last but the platform from which he spoke shook with the vehemence of his movements when he paid his respects to "some present political tendencies."

Fordville Girl Drowns.

Bowling Green, Ky., June 17.—Miss Siegel Gray Ford, aged 19 years, of Fordville, Ky., a student of the Western Kentucky Normal school, was drowned yesterday afternoon in Barron River, at Beech Bend, a popular bathing resort, while in bathing with a party of young people.

She was in shallow water with a companion and stepped off a ledge in 20 feet of water. Her body was recovered at 10 o'clock last night. Miss Ford would have received a certificate in the intermediate department, having completed the four year course, on August 1.

The above item is of interest to Hartford people, as Miss Ford was well known here. She was the daughter of Mr. T. S. Ford, of Fordville.

CITY'S APPEAL IS WITHOUT AVAIL

Supreme Court Decides Against Council of Owensboro in Cumberland Case.

Washington, June 16.—In City of Owensboro vs. Cumberland Telephone Company, the Supreme Court affirmed the decision of the lower court, from which an appeal was taken. The city appealed from a decision of the lower court granting an injunction to prevent the city moving the wires and poles of the telephone company, because it failed to comply with an ordinance of August, 1903, prescribing rates.

This opinion was by Justice Lurton, and from it Justices Day, Hughes and Pitney, strongly dissented. In their opinion the same authority, the council, which made the original grant, could modify it.

Justice Day also said: "Holding its senting opinion of himself and Justices McKenna, Pitney and Hughes, in the Owensboro telephone case, said the ordinance passed by the Owensboro Council, December 4, 1889, granting use of streets and alleys to the Cumberland, did not grant a perpetual franchise because of the limitation upon the authority of the city of Owensboro to grant such a franchise. He said:

"The case is not controlled by previous cases in this court, such as the late case of Louisville vs. the Cumberland, 224 U. S. 649, which had to do with the construction of a legislative grant to a corporation having perpetual succession of the charter of a Kentucky city as is here under consideration."

Continuing the dissenting opinion, he said: "If there is right of repeal (of ordinance) the authorities are conclusive that it exercises to terminate the rights of the company to further use of the streets."

Justice Day also said: "Holding its grant subject to this superior right in the city to end it, I think the subsequent repealing ordinance was within the power of the municipality."

Justice Lurton's view of the case, sustaining the telephone company's contention as to a perpetual grant, was agreed to by Chief Justice White and Justices Lamar, Holmes and Vandewater.

NO RULING MADE IN KENTUCKY CASE

Supreme Court May Render Decision in October—Attack On State Rates.

Washington, June 16.—The supreme court may rule in the Kentucky railroad rate case, when it meets again in October. The case was not decided when the other decisions on railroad rate case findings were announced before the court adjourned for the summer today. The Kentucky case involves an attack upon state rates from river points to inland, distillery cities; and, in addition, an attack upon the constitutionality of the form of the McChord act enabling the state railroad commission to fix reasonable rates on interstate business.

Decisions in the Missouri, Arkansas, Oregon and West Virginia cases, announced today, are in conformity with the principles laid down last week in the Minnesota case. State rate legislation is generally upheld. There is an exception in the case of several weaker Missouri roads.

A graduated tax on tobacco as an amendment to the tariff bill was unanimously rejected by the majority members of the state finance committee today, who voted down Senator Hitebeck's amendment, suggested by Attorney General Reynolds.

The Need of Politeness.

Many of the fashions that we copy from abroad aren't any too creditable in character or source. The suggestive dances, so much in vogue in certain fashionable circles, for example, come from the foreign underworld, as do, also, many of the absurdities in women's dress, which tend unduly to display the human form.

We are so eager to follow a fashion that we rarely take the trouble to inquire if it is either sensible or respectable.

But there's a fashion forming in Berlin which we wish might gain acceptance in this country.

A number of young men of good standing in the German capital, displeased by the growing lack of civility to be seen in men's treatment of women, have formed a league pledged to practice and encourage politeness in public places.

Members of the league obligate themselves, for instance, to surrender their seats in street cars to women and the aged; to offer assistance to women at street crossings and in other places of peril; and to revive, so far as possible, all the little niceties of deportment which went into eclipse about the time that women began to compete largely with men as wage-earners.

The objection to civility is that it is only skin deep; that along with extreme politeness may go the most substantial injustice.

That, of course, is true. But isn't it better to have the injustice with politeness than to have neither justice nor courtesy?

Courtesy costs so very little, and it is so nice!

The toast: "Women, once our superiors, now our equals," was coined as a witticism, but isn't there danger of its becoming a tendency if we do nothing to check the rapid disappearance of old-time politeness and courtesy among the young, and especially among young men toward their sisters, their mothers and other fellows' sisters and mothers?

The Boy Scout movement has elements of usefulness in this direction; but a courtesy league for elders, as in Berlin, might also serve a good purpose in our careless age.—Louisville Herald.

ANOTHER CHANGE BY COMMITTEE

Cattle, Sheep, Hogs and Wheat On Free List—Must Pay Duty On Bananas

Washington, June 16.—The much mooted agricultural schedule of the Underwood tariff bill was suddenly upset again by the majority members of the Senate finance committee late today, when a motion was made to reconsider the action taken earlier in the day approving the free listing of livestock and wheat, subject to a countervailing duty. The proposal now is to strike out the provision for a countervailing duty and leave cattle, sheep, hogs and wheat on the fifteen-cent list tonight this probably would be done. No reason for the change is announced.

The committee today further enlarged the free list by voting to take hemp and ramie (a fibre from the China grass plant, a substitute for cotton) from the dutiable list. The rates on the finished products of these materials was largely reduced.

The effect of the countervailing duty restriction, removed from livestock and wheat, will be to admit Canadian and Argentine products free.

The committee voted to put bananas on the dutiable list, the object being to encourage American growers.

WILL ORGANIZE NEW SUGAR TRUST

Deliberate Threat Is Made Before Committee.

Oxnard Tells Senator Reed and Explains Formation of Old Combine.

Washington, June 16.—Henry T. Oxnard, vice president of the American Beet Sugar Company, told the Senate Lobby Committee today that free sugar would result in the formation of a new "sugar trust." Only the best managed sugar factories would be able to survive free sugar, he said, and a combination would result.

"Then you are going to form a new trust?" asked Senator Reed.

"I have that in mind," said the witness.

"In violation of the anti-trust law?" "No sir; there is no law to prevent it. I am so advised by counsel."

Oxnard told how he assisted in organizing the old sugar trust in 1898, organizing the old sugar trust in 1898, exchanging his company with a capital of $100,000 for $75,000 new stock. The new corporation later was taken over by the American Sugar Refining Company, the present so-called trust.

Oxnard said he received $10,000 a year as vice president of the American Beet Sugar Company, but denied that he was paid that salary "for legislative work."

At the late afternoon session, Oxnard testified that the American Beet Sugar Company was organized with $5,000,000 preferred and $15,000,000 common stock. He declared the latter was "water," now represented, however, by plants and betterments. Bankers took $4,000,000 preferred, and got $5,000,000 common as a "profit."

"Don't you think you did a great moral wrong in putting all this water in the common stock?" asked Senator Nelson.

"You know Wall street's conscience," returned Oxnard.

Senator Walsh questioned Oxnard about the American Beet Sugar Association, an organization of beet sugar men, and predecessor of the United States Beet Sugar Industry, which has been prominent in the present fight against free sugar. The witness did not know how much the old association had spent; its books were destroyed about two years ago by his authorization.

Senator Walsh sought to learn whether Mr. Oxnard was in Washington "When Sugar at a Glance" was changed by someone in what the committee holds a violation of the Senate order making it a public document. Oxnard said he was away at that time. He said he knew a great deal about "Sugar at a Glance," but disclaimed responsibility for it.

Senator Reed asked Mr. Oxnard again as to the destruction of the sugar association's books. Oxnard explained that C. C. Hamlin, of Colorado Springs, chairman of the Board of Directors of the beet association, had been treasurer of the United States Beet Sugar Industry until last July. He had been succeeded by John F. Harper, of Cleveland.

"Were Hamlin's books destroyed?" asked Senator Reed.

"I don't know."

"Were Harper's books destroyed?"

"I don't know."

Oxnard was not prepared to say that he and his companies had contributed $50,000 to the United States Beet Sugar Industry and its predecessors. He said it might be $10,000, but promised to produce the figures later.

Will Have Hard Row to Hoe.

Speaking of the decision of the Senate sub-committee to defer to the demands of President Wilson and place cattle and grain on the free list, the Brooklyn Times says:

Naturally enough there will be strenuous objection to this new feature of the Tariff bill by the farmers of the States bordering on Canada. The free importation of live stock and other agricultural products, which was provided for in the scheme of reciprocity engineered by the Taft administration, was one of the most unpopular features of Mr. Taft's administration, and the presentation of the issue in the border States did much to help Col. Roosevelt's fight for delegates.

Of course, Mr. Wilson has still three and a half years in the White House in which to demonstrate the wisdom of his judgement, but the Congressmen who will be compelled to vote for Free-Trade in agricultural products with Canada, while exacting no reciprocal benefits from the Dominion, will have their own sins to answer for in the election of 1914. The Senate does not face this difficulty to such an extent, although a successor to Root is to be elected next year in New York, and the Democrat who endorses Canadian Free-Trade minus reciprocity will have a hard row to hoe in Northern New York.

The monstrous blunder of subjecting American farmers to Free-Trade competition, while retaining protection for the manufacturers, cost the Republican party the presidency and both houses of Congress and gave the country a Free-Trade government. The Democratic party participated in that blunder, for it was only by the aid of Democratic votes that the Canadian Agreement bill was passed in both House and Senate. The Democratic party escaped punishment for that act of gross injustice to American farmers merely because of Roosevelt. Now, however, the Democrats propose to take upon themselves the entire responsibility for Free-Trade in farm products. They will, in consequence, have a hard row to hoe, senators as well as representatives, in more sections of the country than Northern New York. It is true, as the Jersey City Journal ingeniously observes, that "the farmers are not a majority," but it is also true that no political party which gains the goodwill of seven million farmers can ever hope to remain in favor.

Notice to Water Users.

Persons who have hydrants must not attach hose and leave water running over night, and they are not allowed to use same to water gardens. We want everybody to have plenty of water, and it is not fair to those living at end or near end of pipe line to be shut off from the water by the constant waste between them and the tank. Unless persons attend to their hydrants and keep them closed over night, we shall be compelled to shut water off wherever this is neglected. Respectfully, Kentucky Light & Power Co.

Baseball Dope.

The first and only shut-out game of the season played in Hartford was pulled off here Wednesday afternoon when Hartford defeated Hefflin to the score of 6 to 0. The Hefflin team was accompanied by a big bunch of loyal rooters and the visitors' friends did all they could to help win, and the Hefflin boys endeavored to put it over Hartford, but that was too big a job, as it was decided. Rowan Cox, an old time pitcher, did the twirling for Hefflin, and was caught by Brad Taylor, who did good work. The battery for Hartford was the inviolable—Rickard and Thorpe. Many fans had thought that it was going to be a close game, counting scores, for Hefflin always has a good team, and it was thought Cox would add materially to their strength. No scores were made on either side until the last half of the fifth when Hartford ran in five scores. One of the features of the game was the two bagger knocked by Hunter, and he came very close to getting the pill over the left field fence. He did good work in getting up steam and making it to the second stop for lunch. Needless to say the crowd did some cheering. The next feature was the fielding of Thomas and Rosenblatt, the latter getting two good files.

Barnett and Kling, two of the Hartford charter members, were crippled and on the bench Wednesday. They'll probably be in good form by Saturday.

Garrett, of Nelson, is a star third baseman who has been added to the Hartford team.

There was certainly no kick coming on the decisions of Nance or Collins.

Hartford defeated Equality once this season, but they want to try it again, and these teams will play here Saturday afternoon.

A letter was received yesterday from the manager of the Danfield team, wanting to play Hartford again. A game with them will probably be arranged.

The famous Nebraska Indians will play against Hartford here on Saturday July 5. A record breaking crowd is expected.

The Hartford team will rest up on the Fourth of July, holding for the game the next day with the Indians, but the Woodmen of the World of Hartford camp are going to have a big picnic at the fair ground and in the afternoon will have a game at East End park. It is now thought Taylor Mines and Equality will be the teams to play.

The famous Owensboro Grays journeyed to Hartford last Friday, June 13, 1913—hoo-doo day for the Grays—and found out that up here in the sticks are some sure enough ball players, when it comes to being stacked against a semi-professional team, Owensboro leading by score of 3 to 5. The locals realized that they had a hard team to play against, and every man of them did his utmost to keep up the winning streak that Hartford has been following practically all of the season. Rickard and Thorpe were the battery for Hartford, and Pirtle, an Ohio county boy, and Bean for Owensboro. The attendance was the largest for any game here and the fans were intensely interested. Hartford started off in the first inning to the good, when Green and Rickard scored, the latter putting the ball over the fence and making a home run. Hartford did not score in the second, but in the third, fourth and fifth runs were made, Thomas, Green and Rickard doing the scoring. That was the end of the scoring for the locals, and for many innings it looked like a shut-out game, but in the seventh Woodward and Pirtle scored and Benn scored in the eighth. Everyone was well pleased with the game and congratulations were given the home team on all sides. The only incident to mar the pleasure of the game was the constant "kicking" and flouting of some of the Grays, and especially the disgraceful manner of Centerfielder Woodward and second baseman Wintner in their treatment of Umpire Marvin Miller, of Owensboro. This resulted in Mr. Miller's refusal to finish umpiring the game, and it. T. Collins was called to finish it, and right there the disposition of the Grays took a sudden change for the better.

Summary of the Game.

Stolen bases—Green, 3; Taylor, Richardson, Wintner.
Two-base hits—Barnett, Rickard, Richardson, Pirtle, Bean.
Home-run—Rickard.
Hits—Off Rickard, 4; off Pirtle, 7.
Bases on balls—Off Rickard, 4.
Struck out—By Rickard, 14; by Pirtle, 7.

Hartford lost Saturday afternoon to Rockport, the score being 10 and 7. On account of the strenuous game the day before, Hartford was not in good shape, and several of the players were unable to get in the game at their right positions. If at all, Thorpe was unable to get behind the bat, on account of a bad finger, and Robertson had to lay out during the game. The line-up was almost entirely re-arranged, but notwithstanding in this it looked for some time that Hartford would yet put it on Rockport.

O. Dammitt—He Just Wants Name Changed.

Elmsford, N. C., June 16.—Orlando Dammitt, of this village, wishes to change his name and has started proceedings to that end. Dammitt says that his name has caused him a great deal of worry. For instance, it is a common thing to hear some friend shout:

"Dammitt! Come here a second, will you?"

Then again, Dammitt says that it is rather awkward for him when his name is being called at lodge meetings. The secretary goes down the list of names and when he comes to his, he says:

"O, Dammitt!"

Half the time, Dammitt says he doesn't know whether his name is being called or whether the secretary has made a blot on the books and is merely giving vent to his feelings.

"I'm getting sick of it," says Dammitt. Good heavens, it was bad enough when I went to school. I played on the football team and when ever I made a good play the fellows used to give me a long cheer. It went something like this: 'Hah, rah, rah, hoo-ray! Dammitt! Dammitt! O Dammitt!'"

Whole Family Benefited By Wonderful Remedy

There are many little things to annoy us, under present conditions of life. The hurry, hard work, noise and strain all tell on us and tend to provoke nervousness and irritability. We are frequently so worn out we can neither eat, sleep nor work with any comfort. We are out of line with ourselves and others as well.

A good thing to do under such circumstances is to take something like to relieve the strain on the nerves. Mrs. J. B. Hartford, 33 Corput St., Atlanta Ga., writes:

"I have on several occasions been vastly relieved by the use of your medicine, especially the Anti-Pain Pills, which I keep constantly on hand for the use of myself, husband and two sons. Nothing in the world equals them as a headache remedy. Often I am enabled by the use of one or two of the Pills to continue my household work when otherwise I would be in bed. My husband joins me in my praise of the Anti-Pain Pills and Nerve."

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills

are relied upon to relieve pain, nervousness and irritability in thousands of households. Of proven merit after twenty years' use, you can have no reason for being longer without them.

The Republican-Progressive Platform.

First.—We endorse all the steps which have been taken by the County Republican and Progressive Executive Committees, leading up to and including the call for this convention to formulate a platform upon which candidates for the various county offices and member of the House of Representatives are to appear to voters of Ohio county for support at the coming November election, under the Republican emblem, believing that it is best for those who may enter the General Primary to know what may be expected of them in advance, and fair to the people of the county to know just where their candidates stand, upon all questions of public interest.

Second.—We favor rigid economy in the conduct of all the business of the county to the end that taxes may be reduced to the lowest possible rate, realizing that we are burdened by the present high taxes, State, county and town.

Third.—As a matter of economy and in the interest of a better business system, we favor placing the Fiscal affairs of the county in the hands of a commission to be composed of three persons to be chosen by the voters from the county at large; believing that the finances of the county can better be handled by a smaller number of men, who can be chosen entirely with their business qualifications in view. Under this arrangement the office of Justice of the Peace would not be detracted from, but its powers for usefulness in the maintenance of order in the various magisterial districts would be far greater.

Fourth.—The office of county assessor should be abolished, and the duties of that official performed by men chosen by the County Board of Commissioners, for each magisterial district.

Fifth.—The people of Ohio county deserve better roads and we pledge the candidates who may be nominated upon this platform if elected, to exercise their utmost powers to inaugurate a system which shall bring about this desired end in the speediest and best possible way.

Sixth.—We pledge our hearty support in behalf of every effort to improve our schools, for better buildings, more perfect sanitary conditions, a course in agriculture for every high school, and an agricultural experiment farm located in the county.

Seventh.—Our sympathies are with the farmers in their efforts to obtain better prices for their products, and especially do we sympathize with the tobacco growers of Ohio county and pledge them our support in their efforts to maintain an organization, whereby they may secure a just reward for the toil given by them to the production of this crop. We realize that the struggle is an unequal one and if necessary, we pledge them our support to secure Government aid in maintaining public warehouses, through which they may hold their tobacco until the buyers see fit to accord them fair treatment.

Eighth.—During the last twelve months the county has been impoverished and actual suffering has been brought about among the coal miners on account of slack work, charged to the failure of the railroad to furnish sufficient cars. In order that this evil may be remedied we pledge our candidate for member of the House of Representatives to support a measure enlarging the powers of the State Railroad Commission and making it the duty of said Commission to require all railroads to furnish a sufficient number of cars, without discrimination, to handle the output of coal promptly so that the miners may have steady work, and we also pledge our support for any other wise measure, having for its object relief from this intolerable situation.

Ninth.—We condemn the present Democratic administration of Kentucky for its extravagance through increase of salaries, creation of countless, needless offices, and enormous appropriations which have resulted in the largest State debt in many years, and which is sure to require an increase in taxation through some form. We condemn it for its passage of the Confederate pension bill and its refusal to pay these men, many of whose claims have been proven for months, under the pretext that the bill is unconstitutional, although having appointed officials under the act, who are drawing their salaries. We condemn for its failure to place the Federal institutions of the State under a partisan commission; refusal to pass a workman's compensation act; corrupt practice act; and for its support of the school per capita. We also condemn the unanimous tendency of State officials, from Governor down to play politics by looking after for some other job, instead of looking after the vital interests of the people of the State, and are sworn to serve.

Tenth.—Our candidate for member of the House of Representatives, who may be nominated upon this platform, should be selected by the people in the final election, is instructed and pledged to vote for the following laws:

A measure embodying the Initiative and referendum.

The recall for all State, District and County officials.

An amendment to the Primary Election Law, providing for the election of delegates to National conventions, and for the selection of all party committeemen.

An amendment to the Primary Election Law, providing that where there is only one candidate at any party in the close of the time limit, the selection may be made through that party's committee.

An amendment to the Election Law permitting any candidate to have the benefit of the votes of all parties which may support his candidacy by having his name placed under more than one device upon the ballot.

The repeal of the odious registration certificate law, which in every election has made easy the corruption of the ballot, wherever certificates are required.

A measure prohibiting the use of money, with which to corrupt voters, and disfranchising any one who may sell or buy votes.

A corrupt practice act.

Workman's compensation law.

A measure placing our penal institutions under control of a nonpartisan commission.

Repeal of the hunter's tax.

Repeal of the dog tax.

Abolishment of many needless offices created by the last session of the legislature.

A measure reforming the taxing system of the State which will place the burdens of taxation where they properly belong, instead of upon the men who own small homes and visible property, not easily evaded in the assessment.

A law giving the people of Kentucky equal advantages with those of the States North of us, by compelling the railroads to give us the benefit of 2 cents per mile passenger rate.

Upon all other matters not specifically mentioned herein, our candidate is directed to vote in the interest of progress, and for the general welfare of all our people.

Upon this declaration of principles the members of this convention pledge their hearty support to the candidates who may be nominated at the general primary election, first Saturday in August next, under the Log Cabin, for the various offices to be voted for in Ohio county at the coming November election.

Respectfully submitted,

Deafness Cannot be Cured. by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Hartford, Ky., June 17, 1913. When Mrs. Saville and myself stepped into our home, (the Parsonage) June the 8th, I saw a verification of what some of the people said would happen to me if I were to get married. That is I would get a severe "pounding", and I assure you I was beaten very badly. I shall not begin to tell what was at the Parsonage when we came, for it would be hardly possible; but all kinds of good things were there. Enough to start me house keeping almost.

I hardly think it necessary to tell you we heartily appreciate what you did for us. It is natural that we appreciated the things we received from you, but our greatest appreciation was the spirit in which they were given to us. It is as a spur to help me to do better things without the effects of the spur.

We are with you in your community and are glad to be here. We shall get along all right because we are right. We want to work together for the glory of God and for the good of mankind. We shall stand by you and you stand by us and I am sure we shall have a fine year here and the Church and the people will be blessed. So may the Lord bless us all and help us to do the thing which will be a credit to us and Him.

Sincerely,

W. E. SAVILLE.

Could Shout for Joy.

"I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart," wrote C. B. Rader, of Lewisburg, W. Va., "for the wonderful double benefit I got from Electric Bitters, in curing me of both a severe case of stomach trouble and of rheumatism, from which I had been an almost helpless sufferer for ten years. It suited my case as though made just for me." For dyspepsia, indigestion, jaundice, and to rid the system of kidney poisons that cause rheumatism, Electric Bitters have no equal. Try them. Every bottle is guaranteed to satisfy. Only 50 cents at all druggists.

Opposed to His Pet Legislation.

President Wilson is greatly disturbed over the presence in Washington of an "industrious" and "insidious" lobby, which has gathered there "to create public sentiment against certain features of the Underwood bill" and has issued a statement in which he says he thinks "the people ought to know the extraordinary exertions being made by the lobby to gain recognition of certain alterations of the Tariff bill."

The President does not seem to realize that these alleged lobbyists are the manufacturers and business men of the country who have invested their capital in the industries that have made the United States prosperous, and that the men who have made the journey to Washington are there simply to protest against certain ruinous alterations of their business through attempted legislation drafted by guesswork by men who know little or nothing of the business which they would regulate. The many business men who have assembled at the Capital are there because they would have the members of the House of Representatives and Senate know the actual conditions that confront the industries.

President Wilson and the Democratic majority "would be relieved from this unbearable situation," "this intolerable burden" and "this constant interruption to the calm progress of debate" because they are not willing to learn the actual condition of business affairs which they threaten to destroy. They would have the people believe they are only working for the people's good. But are they to be the sole judges and arbiters of what is good for the people? Theory is all right, at times, but it is much better to have practical knowledge of the business, and this the Democratic majority does not possess. The actuating motive is to try out the theories of the classrooms and the declaration of the Baltimore platform. No attempt is made to find out the real status of affairs. Hearings on the several schedules have been barred, and the public has been able to learn little or nothing, representatives of the businesses affected were unheard, and under the administration whip the schedules have been jammed through against all opposition from those members who foresee the consequences.

While the President complains of the "industrious" lobbying of the men who are vitally interested in the industries affected, he has given his approval of the establishment of a publicity bureau "to educate the people" and "create a sentiment in favor of the Underwood bill. That, in his opinion, is a perfectly legitimate process. There is no allegation of any corrupt influences being brought to bear by the men who have assembled in Washington with the avowed purpose of influencing members of Congress to favor changes in the pending Tariff bill favorable to their own particular business. The one raw spot on which the President is touched is that these men are opposed to his own particular pet legislation, the evolving of theories which he has entertained and taught for years in the classroom. This makes the "lobby" insidious, intolerable and unbearable.
